Who is Reach for Resources?

Reach is a nonprofit organization who serves and empowers people of all-abilities throughout the Twin Cities metro and surrounding suburbs. We provide individualized services that maximize independence, boosts community engagement and improves physical and emotional well-being.

What services does Reach provide?

Reach provides five main services: Adaptive Recreation & Inclusion, Mental Health, Counseling, Community Living and Case Management. Adaptive Recreation & Inclusion offers a variety of activity programs that are specifically designed to meet the needs of people with disabilities. Community Living provides employment support, housing stabilization and living support services. Mental Health offers a variety of specialized services to address both disability concerns and mental health conditions. Case Management provides personalized supports to individuals looking to coordinate their services through waiver funding. Counseling offers individual and group therapy.

Your donation goes to:

Helping Reach provide adaptive programs that promote physical health, build social skills, help with community integration and enhance team building skills.

Because of Reach's Adaptive Recreation programs, individuals like Susan are able to enjoy weekly yoga classes with her friends. These classes focus on breathing techniques and increased body awareness while being specifically adapted to meet the needs of individuals with a wide range of disabilities.

Providing housing stabilization and independent living support services. These services focus on helping people with disabilities achieve the highest level of self-reliance possible.

With the help of Reach staff and a variety of services and programs, Jim has gained additional comfort in living alone and going out in his community. To become as independent as possible, Jim is working towards a goal of tackling laundry on his own and improving his cooking skills.

Empowering individuals with disabilities to find and sustain positive work experiences. This service focuses on resume assistance, job searching and on-site training.

Andrew needed assistance finding meaningful employment in a more competitive, integrated setting and Reach was their to help. Utilizing Employment Services, Andrew was able to find a job he loves within three months. Plus, he's making the highest wage he's ever made!
